10 Regarding the additional endowment of Rs.10,000/- accepted in G.O.No.D.4267-9/G.G.27-36-2 dated 11th January 1937, interest on Rs.2000 at present is used for Horticultural School during the life time of the donor and his wife. Nothing is definitely said as to the disposal of interest on the balance of Rs.8000/- The donor now specifically requests that interest on this amount also be made payable to him and his wife during their life-time. Practically the donor will have thereby reserved to himself interest accruing on Rs.16,000 during his life time and the life time of his wife.

Rs. 2000/. only while Rs. 15,000/- be utilised for maintaining the Hindi School, and that after their death his interest on the total endowment be utilised for maintaining the School. It is therefore clear that the donor's intention was that the interest on Rs. 8000/- should be paid to him and his wife during their life time. On a former occasion also, it has been ordered that interest on another sum of Rs. 8000/- should be paid to Mr. V. and his wife during their lifetime. (Vide para 5.) 16-6-4-37.

Now I am not quite sure if the terms on ~~the~~ which the present endowment have been accepted are really opposed to the Endowment Rule points out by the Mus Branch When a similar offer was made by M/s Venkataramaniah in 1933 no objection was raised by the Mus Branch. If fact, the Go. of 2-8-33 was issued from that Branch

In any case, it is too late to raise any objection. The endowment has been already accepted and the object of the deed is merely to enable the donor and his wife to draw interest on Rs 8000/- during their life time
